Conditions

The Tsvetan Stoyanov Fellowship will enable a junior scholar to spend six months at the IWM in Vienna to pursue her/his research project while working in residence at the Institute. The fellow will receive a stipend to cover all expenses related to the stay in Vienna (travel, accommodation, health insurance, incidentals). The IWM will provide the grantee with a personal office including access to internet, in-house research and administrative facilities.

In addition, the fellow will be provided free of charge with standard consumable supplies and lunch in its cafeteria.

The Tsvetan Stoyanov Fellow will receive a stipend in the amount of EUR 1,500 per month. The 6-month research term must be completed between January and December 2013.

The Tsvetan Stoyanov Fellow will be a member of the international and multi-disciplinary scholarly community at the IWM and is invited to present her/his project at the Institute.

Eligibility

Candidates for the Tsvetan Stoyanov Fellowship:

- must be Bulgarian citizens
- must be enrolled in a doctoral program or recently have obtained a PhD

- must not be older than 35 years

Projects should fall within the humanities and social sciences, and be related to Bulgaria and/or South-Eastern Europe in a broader European or international context. Preference will be given to proposals that closely match the research priorities of the IWM (see www.iwm.at/research.htm)
